

Te Puni Kōkiri
About Us

Te Puni Kōkiri was established in 1992 under the Ministry of Māori Development

- To promote increases in levels of achievement by Māori in education, training and employment
- To monitor and liaise with other government departments and agencies to ensure Māori are well served

In this section you can find out more about us:

Who we are

Te Puni Kōkiri, the Ministry for Māori Development, leads Maori Public Policy, and this section includes our strategic outcome and role, our organisational structure, our values and legislation that we administer. Find out more »

Māori Potential Approach

The Māori Potential Approach is a Māori public policy framework that has been developed by Te Puni Kōkiri. Find out more »

Minister of Māori Affairs

Te Puni Kōkiri provides independent policy advice to the Minister of Māori Affairs. Find out more »

Careers

We publish our latest vacancies here. We provide exciting career opportunities for talented, energetic, innovative and dedicated people who want to contribute to Māori realising their potential. Find out more »

Contact us

We welcome your enquiries and feedback. Contact us »

Our brand

Information about our brand and logo. Find out more »

Last modified: 3/03/2010

TPK, 2007

As at date of publication Archive

