

NZ On Screen, n.d.[b]

2004

Māori Television
Television (Full Length)

News/Current Affairs, Te Reo, maori

Add to Watch list Share

Part one of two from the first half hour of Māori Television launch coverage.

Part two of two from the first half hour of Māori Television launch coverage.

COLLECTION
THE MATARIKI COLLECTION
A selection of iconic Māori TV film and made-for-TV series.

SERIES
Koha
The first Māori programme shown on national TV.

SERIES
HUNTING AOTEAROA
A popular Māori Television show.

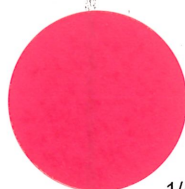

Māori Television Anzac Day coverage 2006

The groundbreaking broadcast of the Māori Queen's tangi

...the early years of NZ Māori TV of

Overview Credits Background Quotes Comments (1)

3rd

After years of protest, agitation, and court hearings, the Māori Television Service finally launched on 28 March 2004. This is the first 30 minutes that went to air. Presented by Julian Wilcox and Rongomaianiwaniwa Milroy, the transmission begins with a traditional montage of Aotearoa scenic wonder (with a twist of tangata whenua); the launch proper opens with a dawn ceremony at Māori Television's Newmarket offices, featuring MPs and other dignitaries. Wilcox also gives background information on the channel and outlines upcoming programming highlights.

Key Cast & Crew

Wayne Leonard
Producer, Director

Rongomaianiwaniwa Milroy
Presenter

Julian Wilcox
Presenter

E ngā iwi o te motu tēnā koutou katoa. Nau mai ki te wā whakatihī nei e rewa ai tēnei puia ki hou o te ao Māori hei ngāhunga ma te ao whānui tonu. Ina, ko te ratonga Irirangi Whakaata Māori e whai teita nei kia tiaho mai I nga tonga rerewa kua roa e toto katia ana mai anoo mai anoo ā mohoa nei. Iaiane kua ea te awhero kua māpurapura ngā whatu kua areare ngā taringa no reira anei ahu mihi te rere arorangi nei.

– Julian Wilcox introduces the channel

Produced by

Maori Television

Source

Maori Television

Topics

maori television broadcasting history powhiri pita sharples tui koru opening transmission conch te warena taua

Explore 34,038 minutes of 'o for awesome'

Browse Television, Film, Short film, Music video, Documentary, Drama and more categories. Classic and curious collections curated by NZ On Screen and special guests.

Collections

People

Biographies, ScreenTalk interviews and details of cast and crew from the NZ screen industry. Video interviews with cast and crew.

ScreenTalk Interviews

About us Contact & Feedback History of TV

Subscribe to our weekly newsletter

SIGN UP

Stay in touch

In time for the 25th anniversary, this Marae piece from 2002 looks at @MaifM's 10yr celebration, new @ NZ On Screen <https://t.co/Uutcpcltkf>

Visit our sister site

The noisy library of New Zealand music

This website has been made with funding from

Terms & Conditions Website Disclaimer Privacy Policy