Select Electorate

This is not the formal declaration of results.

The Electoral Commission declares the results of the official count by publishing a notice in the NZ Gazette.

Detailed information to be presented to the House of Representatives (E9), including allocation of list seats, voting place information and special vote statistics, is expected to be available by Friday 20 November.

Enrolment by general electorate

These statistics show how many people in each general electorate are currently enrolled to vote.

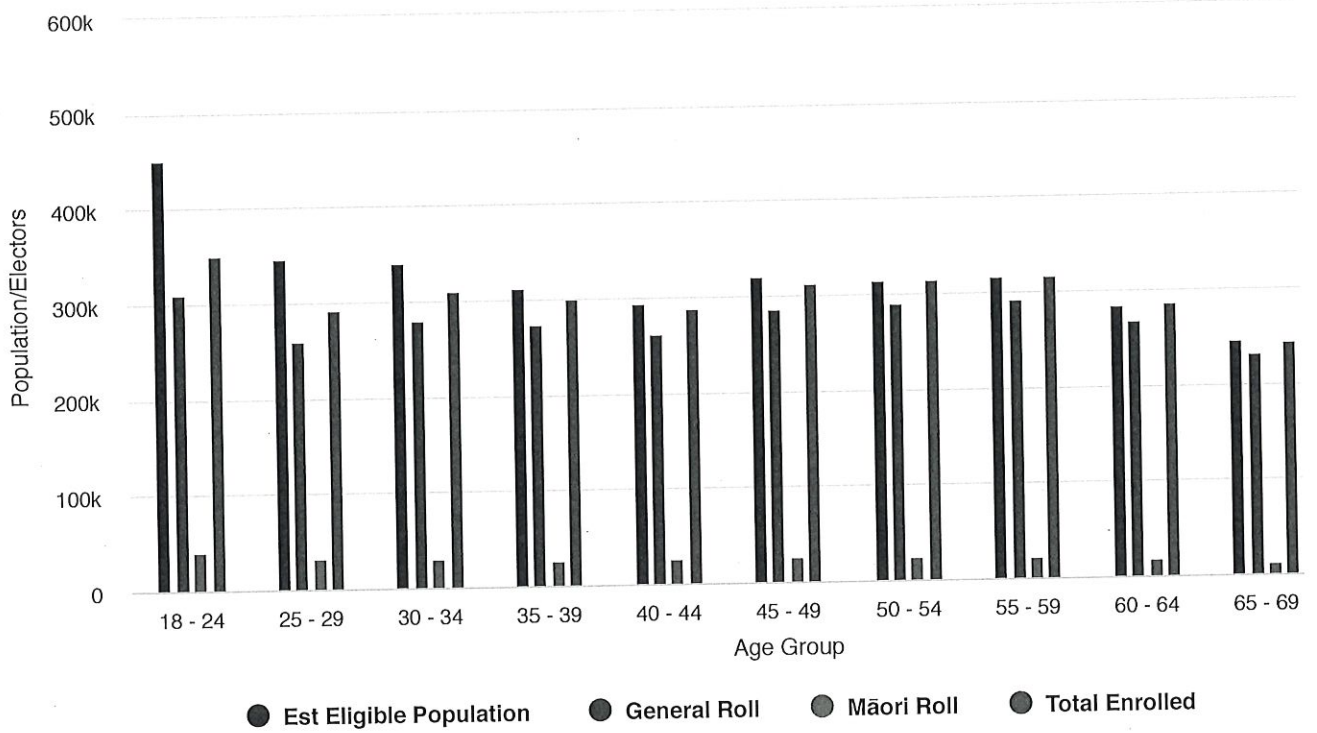

Reading the general electorate tables

Use the drop down menu to select an electorate. The table divides that electorate's population by age range.

We update these figures monthly
