 The investigation will focus on identifying criminal offending related to the protest and occupation activity.

Forensic investigations are underway to determine those responsible for the arson.

 A check for hazards will also be completed before the area can reopen to the public.

Police investigators have also begun the process of reviewing a huge amount of footage taken of yesterday's operation, to identify possible further lines of enquiry and prosecution.

P.

Over 500 Police staff were involved in yesterday's operation, 40 of whom were injured. Eight of those officers required hospital treatment and all have now been discharged.

 The majority of these injuries were minor lacerations and bumps, however,
 those in hospital suffered serious but not life-threatening injuries.

I come here for the cat stories. @kate_berridge · 3 Mar 2022
 We are all very grateful to our frontline staff for their dedication and courage in these challenging times.

Thank you 🙏.
