Watch: Rugby World Cup-winning Black Ferns celebrated at Parliament

1:27 pm on 13 December 2022

The Black Ferns, sporting the Rugby World Cup gold medals they won a month ago, have been celebrated at a gathering on Parliament's lawn.

See the crowd meeting their heroes and how the ceremony unfolded here:

It is the latest celebration since the team defended their title last month with a thrilling 34-31 win over England (<https://www.rnz.co.nz/news/sport/478618/rugby-world-cup-black-ferns-win-final-against-england-by-three-points>) in a sold-out Eden Park.

Fans across the country have had the opportunity to meet their heroes during the Black Ferns 'Thank you Aotearoa' tour.

Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern has called the Black Ferns legends (<https://www.rnz.co.nz/news/national/478627/ardern-says-no-words-for-black-ferns-win-but-for-now-i-m-going-to-go-with-legends>) for their win, while Sports Minister Grant Robertson
